

WOMEN IN STEM

Adaptation by ninesixteen.ca

ESTHER HILL

Building Her Own Way

University of Toronto Archives

In 1925, Hill became the first woman educated at a Canadian university to become a registered architect. Although she faced many barriers, she became a successful independent architect, designing houses, churches and other residences.

Ingenium is committed to encouraging and empowering women and girls in science, technology, engineering, and math. Learn more at: ingeniumcanada.org/womeninstem/